FROM THE VARIETY SHOW TO GIMME A "G", NO ONE CAN BEAT THE PRIDE AND SPIRIT OF '93!

It's hard to believe that our four years at Grafton High School are almost over. As a class we can leave satisfied that we had a positive effect on the school, and not just because of our projects like the Work-a-thon, the first Sophomore Semi-formal or our athletic achievements. Instead, our most important contributions have been intangible: our high morale, our unity as a class, and our ability to enjoy high school without getting into too much trouble. Not to mention that we are the undisputed Spirit Week Champions and very talented performers of the Variety Show!! In the years to come we will undoubtedly go our separate ways, and even lose touch with some of our friends and classmates, but what's most important is that we don't lose touch with the special memories we've shared. But that's what yearbooks and reunions are for. Besides, we truly are unforgettable.

For all that we've brought to this school we have been well rewarded with education and support from the faculty and administration and hopefully we have all had a positive experience here. Just take a look at these shining faces on the next few pages and it'll be hard to believe that there was ever a dull or disappointing moment here at G.H.S.! (then again, with the Class of '93 around, how could there be?!)

Why are Troy Winslow, Keith O'Brien, and Marc 'Heff' Thuot smiling as they eat these sundaes — are the boys scholarly or just sneaky?

The much-influential Roger Limoges and Jenifer Heck show their enthusiasm isn't limited to school.

Either Justin Phillips, Angela Rynearson, Jamie-Lyn Orasy and Essek Petrie are dressing up for Spirit Week or they are ready to blow off school and head to the beach!

Vowing that their friendship will last "Against All Odds" are Andrea Day, Erika Simpson, Carolyn Magill, Courtney McKinstry, Erica Butke, Erin Brehme, Danielle Dumas, Tina Fiacco, and Melissa Baril with Becky Dowd playing the piano. Next stop Broadway or Margaretville?

What a cute couple Bobby Leger and Nicole Meomartino would make!

Proud of all that they've accomplished during their four years at Grafton High School, the Class Officers and their supportive advisors stand tall next to their respected Indian mascot. Mrs. Trapasso, co-advisor, Bob Leger, Treasurer, Carolyn E. Magill, President (was it clash day?); Michelle Ng, Secretary; Julie Prunier, Vice President; and Mrs. Kasierski, co-advisor.

Nominees for nicest smile? Corey Melanson and Kevin McMahon show off their pearly whites!

Although we're sad high school is done, we believe THE BEST IS YET TO COME!

DEDICATED — TO THE ONES WE LOVE

Dear Mrs. Trapasso and Mrs. Kasierski,

Our four years at Grafton High would have been impossible without the both of you. Mrs. Trapasso, you have guided us with your charitable and loving spirit, always open to new ideas. You have given us an inspiration that will forever stay with us. Mrs. Kasierski, we are grateful for your dedication and devotion. We will never forget the guidance and help you have given us through this, our senior year. Together the two of you have made our class grow into a mature, unified family. No matter how far we move in our separate ways, we will remember you. We wish to dedicate this yearbook of the Class of 1993 to you.

FACULTY

What do they do when they aren't teaching?

SUPERINTENDENT WILLIAM COMPTON LEAVES

William Compton has always been an educator. After receiving his B.S. in 1967, he taught math and science at David Prouty; he was also an assistant principal there from 1974 to 1980. Then he moved on to become superintendent and principal at East Brookfield. In 1985 he became assistant superintendent for the Spenser/East Brookfield Regional School District, remaining there until he became superintendent here at Grafton in 1987. He also coached football, basketball and track at Spenser from 1969 to 1975. He will be sorely missed by staff and students, who found him supportive, accessible, friendly, and committed to education. WE WILL MISS HIM!!!!

Bill Compton, our superintendent,
A warm human being, a real gent,
Has been a great boss;
His going's our loss —
He took our best wishes when he went.

SKIP HOLLAND, APPRECIATED

During Class Night the seniors gave a special recognition to science teacher Skip Holland, presenting him with a class T-shirt and a check to do with what he wishes. Mr. Holland got his B.S. from Boston University in 1963 and his Masters Degree from Worcester State in 1967. He started teaching in Grafton at the Junior High in 1963, moving to the high school in 1974. Skip Holland is our friend, our colleague, and our teacher. As our friend, He never viewed any favor as too large or any kindness as too small. As our colleague, he was always there for those who needed him. And, as our teacher, Skip showed us the value of grace, humor, and courage in dealing with life's grimmest realities. For those of us who are lucky enough to know him, Skip will always be with us.

They also serve who only sit and wait . . . at dances.

Dick Egsegian has coached football at Grafton High School for 31 years, first as assistant coach under Mr. LeMay, then as head coach in 1969. He is a GREAT COACH! His teams always give 150%. He has guided his teams to five Super Bowls, the first in 1976. This year he became an innovator in the coaching ranks by establishing a new coaching format. He has appointed his two assistants to co-coaches to assume Head Coach responsibilities. He himself has assumed the J.V. responsibilities to attempt to have the players better drilled in the skills of the game.

IT'S ALMOST HERE, FINALLY — OUR SENIOR YEAR!!

We're Almost Done

As we the class of 1994 proceed into our senior year, we look back on a very productive and enjoyable year. It started with a very successful dance. This was followed with the Whirlybird Whoopee where our class sold the most tickets. Our class has always been united in effort and spirit. Class unity definitely shined when we again came out on top in the fall spirit week. Other activities included a Christmas candy cane sale, working on the '93 prom, helping with the school variety show, participating in the fashion show, and preparing for the '94 prom. Thanks to the dedication and hard work of many class members, we have had a very successful year and look ahead to a great senior year.

"It's been a pleasure working with the class of '94. I'm looking forward to our senior year."

SOPHOMORES: CLASS OF 1995

The Sophomore class, under the leadership of the class President Sabine Hart, Vice-President Sami Bukte, Secretary Bethany Hart, Treasurer Tony Fiocco, and student council Cory Nazarian, John Clements, Sherri Atchue, & Joshua Bedell has been able to partake in and promote a variety of events. Activities which allowed our class to raise money were the Halloween Dance, Semi-Formal and carnation sale. During this past year we also enjoyed the memorable ring ceremony where we were presented with our class rings and we look forward to the organization and enjoyment to be had at next year's Junior Prom. The student body of the class of 1995 has without a doubt contributed to the accomplishments and successes of our 92-93 year and together, being the biggest class at Grafton High, we will carry on our spirit through Senior Year.

ONE DOWN AND THREE TO GO

We're finally freshmen making our way through the first year at Grafton High School. Though its had its up's and down's we've learned to accept the bad with the good. High school is different than middle school because the only thing that was important to us was popularity and we will admit that we were pretty immature but we are growing-up and moving on. Our first day of high school was exciting but yet we were very nervous. By joining clubs such as the debate club, yearbook, and the newspaper we met people and it made it easier to fit in. During the year we also participated in a number of different sports. Freshmen also took part in the annual variety show. Our freshman year at Grafton High went by so fast that it's hard to believe in only a few more months we will no longer be the little kids of the school. We will leave that to the Class of "97."

Mrs. Bedell says, "We had a successful year in 1992-93. Better years lie ahead."

THE SPIRIT OF CHANGE . . . A NEW SEASON

"A new season of American renewal has begun," said our new President William Jefferson Clinton when he was inaugurated in 1993. We as students watched the world that we will soon lead change before us. We witnessed the changing of a presidential administration in the White House, the near impeachment of Russian President Boris Yeltsin, and the effects of modern day issues such as unemployment, the environment, and terrorism. The following pages are dedicated to the major events and social issues of our senior year — 1992-93.

Below, we can see why our environment is in such trouble. Although we have put restrictions on what goes into our atmosphere, industrial pollution is still one of the greatest causes of what we call the "Greenhouse Effect."

Unemployment, perhaps this is the reason why George Bush lost his candidacy for re-election. The Nation continues to struggle to find a way to put the unemployed back to work.

As the Western Forest continues to shrink, we are caught between saving our environment and having to put thousands of loggers out of work. The forest is important for reasons of clean air, homes for animals, and fuel consumption.

Barbara Bush, George Bush, Dan Quayle and his wife Marilyn at the Republican National Convention. This was the official kickoff for George Bush's failed re-election attempt. Texas billionaire H. Ross Perot hit the campaign trail with his best-selling book United We Stand. This on again-off again candidate did not receive even one electoral vote. He was, however, the most successful third party candidate that this country has seen in decades.

Above, First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton along with Second Lady Tipper Gore celebrate the new meaning and roles of women in The White House. A successful Democratic National Convention proved to be the foundation for the generational Clinton/Gore ticket. This team ended twelve years of Republican leadership in The White House.

In 1991, Boris Yeltsin was elected President of the Russian Federation. This past March, he survived his first political coup. Will he be successful in restoring democracy in Russia?

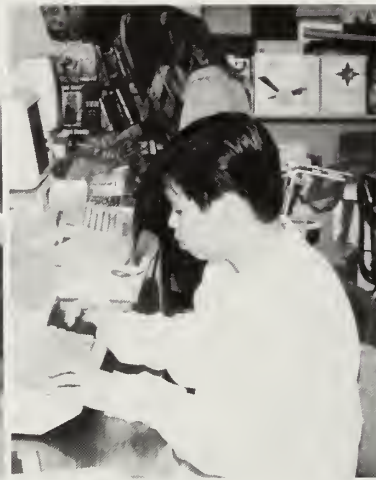

America's trip to Barcelona, Spain, brought numerous Gold, Silver, and Bronze Medals to our athletes.

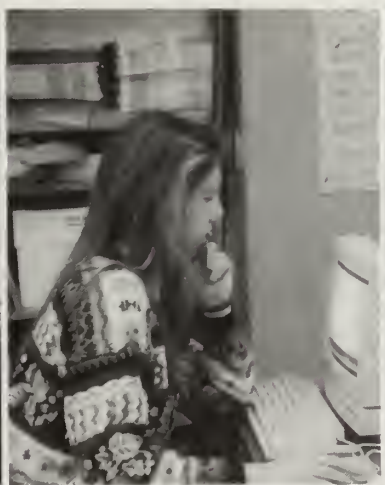

Saddam Hussein is alive and well in Baghdad. Even though Desert Storm ended in February of 1991, this leader continues to be a thorn in the side of the United States Government — will he ever go away?

Hurricane Andrew ripped through the Bahamas and parts of the southern United States earlier in the year. The storm will cost the federal government over 20 billion dollars before the final clean up.

Newspaper In Black and White

The 1992-93 school year marked the second year of publication of In Black and White. With the expert guidance of advisor Ms. Lori Paldino, the staff was able to successfully complete a full year of issues. Editor-in-chief Nicole Meomartino, news editor Michelle Ng, production editor Tracy Girouard, photography editor Scott Godbout, sports editor Danielle Renaud, co-advertising manager/literary editor Amy Patrick, and co-advertising manager Lori Hout led the students through a year of changes and improvements.

Drawing from the previous year's experiences, the staff began in the summer to pull together ideas and organize for the months that lay ahead. The addition of the new computers and printers into the English department was a great help, because it enabled several writers to work at the same time. Another second year improvement was the expansion of the advertising staff, which aided the financial situation and allowed the staff to continue to distribute the paper free of charge.

Topics of articles ranged from the facts and opinions of the '92 election to movie reviews and the latest projects in Mrs. Dadah's physics classes. The paper, as well as some of the articles and artwork, was entered into contests again this year. With experience, In Black and White will hopefully continue to improve year after year.

THE DEBATE TEAM GOES IN FOR THE KILL. The team has had its greatest season yet! Getting up on all those early Saturday mornings and traveling sometimes up to two hours to our meets has really paid off. Nearly all our debaters qualified for the state finals leading to our FIFTH PLACE OVERALL finish in the small schools division. Team members entered various categories ranging from Congress and Group Discussion to Poetry Reading and Children's Literature. Next year, the Nationals?? Just as long as they are still in Florida.

PEER EDUCATION

Peer education is a program in which students undergo training to learn about drugs and alcohol and dealing with other social pressures. They then teach this information to their peers and children in the elementary and middle schools by performing skits or initiating class discussions. Mr. Richardson is the advisor for the following members: (front) Tracy Girouard, Julie Prunier, Carolyn Magill, Andrea Day, Courtney McKinstry, Meghan Flynn, Chantale Duguay, Tiffany Regan, (middle) Brendan Flynn, Nippa Holmes, Rob Leger, Kristina Magill, Nikki Limoges, Laura Sherritt, Julie Rahal, Becky Rogers, (back) Rebecca Dowd, Tara Coleman, Sarah LeBlanc, Danielle Dagilis, Lisa Schonberg, Cheryl Dauphinais, Julie Girouard, and Erin Reardon.

SAC

Through the Student Advisory Council elected members are able to confront controversial issues facing schools today. This is a state-wide organization which aims to keep students informed of current education legislation and student rights. This year Erika Simpson (below left) was elected to the state board by the regional members while Carolyn Magill (below right) served as the student representative to the school committee.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Every year each class elects four students to the Student Council, which plans activities like fundraisers and Spirit Week. Mr. Richardson serves as advisor for the following members: (front) Kelly Williams, Carole Klocek, Kellie Coonan, Erin Rudack, Melissa Baril, (middle) Nicole Meomartino, Brendan Flynn, Galen Holmes, Joshua Bedell, Joan Clements, Corey Nazarian, Sherri Atchue, (back) Brett Warwick, Dan Tebo, Wesley Paul, and Christy Castell.

Cristina Samsel speaks about scholarship at the induction ceremony.

NHS

Students of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

This year was a record-breaking one for the National Honor Society, as the largest number of students ever were inducted into the Grafton Chapter. The twenty nine inductees were: seniors Alison Gauthier, Stephanie Jensen, and Jennifer Vincent; juniors Colleen Canavan, Lori Hout, Wirinya Leammukda, and George Witman; and sophomores Joshua Bedell, Fiona Bedford, Sarah Belding, Timothy Brown, Samantha Butke, John Clements, Melissa Dauphinais, Chantale Duguay, Anthony Fiacco, Christopher Garrecht, Karen Gwozdowski, Bethany Hart, Sabine Hart, Jason Kaufman, Katherine Kirejczyk, Darlene Maloney, Cory Nazarian, Chris Nichols, Tracy Postero, Julie Rahal, Aaron Spence, and Richard Woods.

Jenning Wong, Molly Chaloner, and Matt Libbey perform "The Rose" at the ceremony.

"Every Great Achievement Was Once Impossible."

Since its establishment four years ago, the Grafton High OM team has had a history of success, and this year was no exception. For the fourth year in a row, the structure team won the right to represent Massachusetts at the World Finals, this year in Maryland. Those team members were Ryan Bardsley, Kevin Carlson, Megan Bardsley, Aaron Sherritt, John Beaber, Matt Libbey, and Chris Migala.

It is love? Amy Cummins and her guest.

A DAY TO CHERISH

The day had finally arrived and preparations were complete. The weddings could not have been lovelier had they been real.

Personal and Family Living is a course in which students learn about themselves, their peers, and how to prepare for the future. The "mock" weddings are the highlight of the course. The weddings were as close to the real thing as they could be. Participants in the first wedding were: Troy Winslow, father of the bride; Becky Allen, mother of the bride and her significant other, Justin Phillips; Erin Bjorndal and Leo L'Esperance, parents of the groom; bridesmaids, Tina Fiacco and Courtney McKinstry; ushers, Keith O'Brien and Joe Williston; Kelly Phillips, maid of honor; Terry Cahill, best man; Kayla Evans, flower girl; Tina Mazzarelli, celebrant; Michelle Mesale, bride and Rich Allard, groom. Important contributions behind the scene were made by: Heather Bolack, Dawn Booth, Jeff Gardzina, Mark Leoleis, Jaime Murillo, and Ryan O'Neill.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

For the first time . . . Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Venuti!

"Girls just want to have fun."

The second wedding featured: Neil Jordan and Jennifer Germain, parents of the bride; Danielle Dumas, mother of the groom; bridesmaids Erica Butke and Andrea Day; ushers Ryan Bardsley and Wayne Farrar; maid of honor, Erin Brehme; best man Chris Penney; flower girls Bianca Bingham and Amanda Mitchell; officiant Roger Limoges; flutish Amy Castonguay; bride Angela Ryneerson; and groom Christopher Venuti. The following people worked behind the scenes: Cheryl Daigneault, Liz Lucier, Kelly Kuropatkin, and Crystal Maloney. J.F.K. Memorial Auditorium was the setting for both weddings. Receptions complete with the introduction of the bridal party, best man's toast, buffet dinner, cutting of the cake, a first dance and flowers followed. Special thanks go to the foods classes; and Tux by Design in North Grafton as well as PRONUPTIA in Worcester. These shops provided outfits for the weddings free of charge.

GHS BAND

Lori McIntyre fills the air with the sound of music.

The Grafton High band got off to a rockin' start this year. Lead by Mr. Libera, the band played many football games, the annual Christmas concert, and the Memorial Day parade. On percussion, Neil Jordan, Jamie Cross, Jeff Gould, Chris Boreili and Chris Haddad. Tooting their horns are Kevin Yap, Tony Frederico, Aaron Spence, Chris Nichols, Frank Ciccone, and Jon Therrien. Blowing woodwinds are Jessica Jacques, Essex Petrie, Stephen Yap, Bethany Hart, Janet Spence, and Todd Hildebrant. Flute tooters include Bonnie Gordon, Lori McIntyre, Amy Gastonguay, Sabine Hart, and Nina Vidal. On bass, the one and only Ed King. And for moral support, Jared Ashley.

ACADEMIC & ATHLETIC AWARDS NIGHT

The academic and athletic awards night was held on June 9, 1993. To recognize the athletic achievements of students at Grafton High the coaches of our sports teams presented sports letters or gold bar certificates for participation on a varsity level freshman through senior year. Mr. LeMay presented academic awards; these awards were given to students in each grade who made the honor roll in all their classes for an entire year. Special awards presented to juniors include the Harvard Book Award, Rensselaer Award, and the Bausch & Lomb Award for outstanding achievement in math and science. This year all three were presented to Matthew Libbe. Also, Erin Rudack, Christie Carlo, and Lynn Molinari earned the blanket award for participation on a varsity level in seven sports — an impressive accomplishment for juniors. Seniors who received that award are Courtney McKinstry, Troy Winslow, Tim Graves, and Jeff Caputo. Finally, special awards were presented to seniors based on their performance during their four years at Grafton High: the Outstanding Achievement Award to Essek Petrie for earning more than seven varsity letters; U.S. Army Reserve Scholar Athlete Awards to Galen "Nippa" Holmes & Courtney McKinstry; District E Athletic Directors' Award to Tim Graves & Bethany Dickert; the "Indian of the Year" Award to Keith O'Brien for displaying traits of courage, good sportsmanship, and dedication; the Hassanimisco commemorative Award to Carolyn Magill for outstanding achievement in athletics and academics; and last but far from least, the Emmett Ludy Memorial Award for the best male athlete to Jeffery Caputo. Congratulations to all!

WE'VE GOT TONIGHT . . .

The judges proved how wise they were by their choices for this year's Senior Court. And while everyone looked beautiful and handsome (the members of the Class of '93 are sooo attractive!), the following people were especially deserving of this recognition: Rob Leger; Melissa Baril; Angela Rynearson, Queen and Ken Haddad, King; Tina Fiacco; David Johanssen; Keith O'Brien; and Michelle Mesale

Worthy of being on the same page as the court are the following beauties: Kelly Williams (lower left), Nippa Holmes, (he must be between his usual smiles!), Jeff Caputo, Courtney McKinstry, Carolyn Magill and her guest Anthony Shippole.

The Senior Court

The 1993 Junior and Senior prom was held at White Cliffs in Northboro on May 14. The elegant surroundings were matched by the presence of simply stunning ladies and handsome men. As the night wore on commitments to dates and the amount of self-conscious dancers began to diminish. In their places came the appreciation for being surrounded by good friends and great music. Clearly this year's theme was appropriate for the energetic crowd that was present; the smiles on everyone's face — or in some cases, concentration — as they did the "Conga" or the "Chicken Dance" reflected the attitude of "We've got tonight;; and we won't waste a minute of it!

It's surprising that the talented dancers at this table were sitting long enough for a picture! Kelly Ludy (lower left), Beth Hermans, Nick Cassano, Heather Bolack, Erica Butke, Marty Palermo, Ed Endrigua, and Jen Turcott.

Scott Godbout and Christine Jolie Join the senior parade for court, showing what an attractive couple friends can make.

Oooh Baby . . . Ryan O'Malley and Marc Thuot have all the right moves — and the hot bods to top it all off!

Cindy Murtari, Noura Hage, Jamie Powers and their guests show their prom spirit as they do the "Conga".

OH WHAT A NIGHT! The fun continues . . .

The dazzling junior court consists of Ilkka Uitti; Shannon Flynn; Kelly Ormond, Queen and Matthew Libbe, King; Kara Crawford; Guy Borci; Kelly Williams; and Stephen Kirejczyk.

No wonder the judges' decision was difficult — Meghan Flynn and Marc Thuot, Kelly Williams and Nippa Holmes, Andrea Hirst and George Whitman join the junior parade for court.

What beautiful smiles! Katie Gronberg and Brooke Erickson are happy to be at the prom — and to see the camera!

Pretty Women Cristina Samsel and Kristi Carlo put their cameras aside for a moment to pose for their own picture.

With these smiles it's obvious that the people at Table 20 had a great time at the '93 prom: Sherry Maynard, Ammie Schoenfeldt, Jeff Gardzina, and Jesse Plaud.

Following the tradition of pre-prom pictures on the common are Matt Ashley, Kerri Clements, Scott MacDonald, Nikki Limoges, Liz Hogan and her guest, Kristina Magill and Pete Yablonski.

Enjoying every minute of this special night, Carrie Wojtaszek and Eric Matthew and Chrisanne Wyrzykowski and Ryan Bardsley walk in the junior parade for court.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP: the fun continues . . .

The "Babes" — Erin Brehme, Melissa Baril, Tina Fiacco, Erica Butke, Carolyn Magill, and Courtney McKinstry — formed another volleyball team. Unfortunately they were beat in the first round . . . at least they looked good!

Volleyball fans Stephen & Kevin Yapp, David Johanssen, Andrea Day, Tina Fiaccó, & Brendan Flynn cheer on Grafton teams.

Kellie Burns, Pam Jones, & Bonnie Gordon try their hand at shuffleboard.

Left, the swimmers stop trying to outdo each other with diving board stunts long enough for this flattering photo. Above, Ryan O'Malley pulls the best jump of the day — the belly flop (at least it made the biggest splash, anyway!).

It's Laverne & Shirley! Oops, Heff's dreds confused me for a sec; it's actually Alyson Candela & Heff Thuot who are skipping, as Ryan Bardsley, Kevin Bergholtz, Essek Petrie, Chris Penney, & Bob Leger hackey-sack.

On June 1 the senior class traveled to High Meadows, CT for their class trip. There were plenty of activities during the day to ensure everyone had fun; from volleyball, badminton, bocci, softball, basketball and obstacle courses to a lip sync contest, limbo competition, dancing, and egg toss a sac race and a constant buffet, there was at least one event to satisfy everyone's tastes. Although Grafton was probably the smallest school there, we did very well in competitions and nobody there could outspirit us. Congrats to the Class of '93 — as individuals you have the special ability to get along well as a group by being friendly and supportive. We may not realize it now but this characteristic — which was especially evident on our class trip — will be invaluable later in life. As we develop this ability in the future let's not forget that our classmates in high school were probably among the first to help us develop it, and they even taught us to have fun at the same time!

Nippa Holmes and Mark Benoit devise their own system of entertainment for the day.

Danielle Dumas, Andrea Day, Jamie-Lyn Orasy, Angela Rynearson, & Melissa Baril enjoy being with each other as much as anticipating in the activities.

All the excitement of the day (i.e., and unplanned water-balloon fight) left Jason Castillo, Erica Butke, Ken Haddad, & Dave Johanssen a little wet!

CLASS NIGHT: A Special Memory for Seniors

Tears filled the eyes of co-advisor Mrs. Kasierski as Vice President Julie Prunier presents to her a gift from Sharfman's, a token of our gratitude for all her help our senior year.

Smiling in spite of themselves — replacing the longing for times gone by with optimistic thoughts of the future — Brendan Flynn presents a gift to Mrs. Trapasso, our four-year advisor. We hope that the jewelry we chose for her will last as long as our fond memories of her kindness will.

Jeffrey Caputo and Nippa Holmes present to Mr. Holland the proceeds of a school-wide support drive on his behalf, along with the ever-stylish Class of '93 t-shirt. We are honored and thankful to have him share this special night with us.

SUPERLATIVES

Many of us in the Class of '93 have known each other since elementary school. Through the years we recognize traits in our classmates that seem to resurface again and again. The following superlatives indicate what type of characters we have in our class and who they are. Unfortunately, there are a couple of pictures missing: Terry Cahill & Erica Butke for a couple of pictures missing: Terry Cahill & Erica Butke for Nicest Buns and Jason Castillo & Erin Bjondal for tallest guy and shortest girl. Oh yeah, Mark Leoleis & Emily Delaney were elected moodiest.

When seniors arrived at Class Night on June 3, they met in the cafeteria, which N.H.S. members had transformed into an attractive room decorated with balloons and streamers. After a buffet dinner Mr. LeMay and our teachers presented special awards for academic and athletic achievements. Then the class officers awarded the superlative prizes. The last event of the night was a slide show of the Class of '93, which included pictures from Nursery School to High School. Unfortunately this could be the last time that the entire Class of '93 is together. Even if that is true, thought, the events of the night represent the closeness of our class and memories, at least, that can last lifetime.

GRADUATION: A Farewell to GHS, A Welcome to our Future

Mr. LeMay, whose leadership and good judgment make him a respected role-model for all students at GHS, labels this year's class as one of the best ever to graduate from Grafton. Who are we to argue?

Rebecca Dee, Jane Smith, Kelly Kuropatkin, Stephanie Jamiol, Jen Vincent, Tracy Girouard, Christine Jolie, and Rebecca Dowd sing "Friends" — a song very appropriate for the class of '93 — as Michelle Ng accompanies them on the piano.

Scott Godbout and Bethany Dickert smile for their last picture as Grafton High students.

Nicole Meomartino, Valedictorian, Rebecca Dowd, Salutatorian, and Carolyn Magill, Honor Speaker, deliver their speeches.

Troy Winslow, Rich Allard, Terry Cahill, Erica Butke, Danielle Dumas and Cheryl Dauphinais don't look very disappointed to be leaving Grafton High!

Bad Boys in robes — Watch out! Andy Breecher, Kevin Carlson, and Jamie Powers.

Moments like these are best when spent with good friends — Jennifer Vincent, Kellie Burns, and Pam Jones.

Alyson Candela, Kerri Pooler, Jamie-Lyn Orasy, Angela Rynearson, Andrea Day and Kelly Kuropatkin looking beautiful in their angelic white robes.

Erika Simpson, Cheryl Daigneault, Andrea Day, and Danielle Dumas — keep smiling!

Mushroom Attic congratulates each other for graduating: Chris Venuti, Essek Petrie, Ryan Bardsley, and Neil Jordan.

SENIOR WEEK IN REVIEW

Finally finished with finals, the seniors conducted the traditional parade, visiting schools in Grafton, Millbury, and Uxbridge. A special thanks to the police of Grafton and Uxbridge for all their support along the way!

"Hey, no pictures — I'm trying to concentrate!" says Jeff Caputo as he and Heff Thuot cook burgers for everyone. Erin Brehme is taking advantage of another opportunity to get her picture taken.

Seniors no more, Marc Thuot and Rich Allard socialize with Mrs. Kasierski and Mrs. Langas because they want to — not for brownie points!

Trendsetters that they are, the Class of '93 had "Skip" Day after finals. Above, Jamie-Lyn Orasy and Terry Cahill battle Angela Rynearson and Rich Allard in a "chicken" fight.

Are Erica Butke and Timothy Graves hyper or happy? O.K., both!

Trust Chris Penney to have a smile to greet any occasion, while Stephen Yapp looks a little dazed!

How We Dealt With the Stress

Are Brendan Flynn, Jason Castillo, Roger Limoges, Carolyn Magill, Jeff Caputo, Ken Haddad, and Kevin Bergenholtz actually attempting to sleep after graduation? Good Luck!

Celebrating makes us all a little crazy, but at last Ken Haddad and Keith O'Brien are enjoying themselves. What a cute couple!

All right, draw your own conclusions as to what Brendan Flynn and Bobby Leger are doing in this picture!

Nippa Holmes not in the mood to eat? Now that's stress!

Field Hockey

The 1992-93 field hockey team was under the leadership of senior Pam Jones and Junior Christie Carlo. Again the lady Indians did a fine job this year as in years past. Each member of the team played to the best of their potentials. As in every year, coach Shirley Cusson helped make the team and the season a tremendous success by her dedication to the team. Good Luck to seniors Pam Jones and Bonnie Gordon and good luck to all the girls who have many more memories.

SOCCER

The words — District Playoffs. The 1992-93 Indians soccer team finished off its most successful season ever with a 10-6-1 record. Led by Coach Mike Flynn, the record was good enough to qualify the boys for their first post-season appearance.

The season started out with one win and one loss. An opening-day 1-0 win over Millbury was followed by a tough 0-1 loss to Oxford. The Indians' tough play in these opening games epitomized the team's focus on offense and defense. The Indians were led by captains Bob Leger and Tim Graves. Defensemen Adam and Scott Macdonald and Jared Simpson aided Matt Brophy, Ilkka Uitti, and Tony Fiacco. Seniors Essek Petrie and Jason Kaufman took charge of mid-field while Steven Yap and Chris Mackin provided solid support behind the line. Forwards were Nick Lapworth, Eric Dunster, Kevin Yap, and Tony Fiacco.

The 1992 season was very impressive for the Varsity Girls Soccer team. The girls withstood the pressure of being only a second year team and improving on last year's record of qualifying for the first round Districts. The girls met this challenge with determination and were rewarded with success; not only did they qualify for the District E Championships, but they progressed all the way to the final round. Their success can be attributed to their skills as soccer players and to their ability to cooperate with others and to work as a team. Their high morale emphasizes that despite their competitive attitudes, they never lost sight of the fact that they ultimately played soccer for fun; they refused to allow any adversity faced on the field to diminish that spirit. For this reason, the Girls Soccer team do not need to rely on a scoreboard to dictate whether they are winners; they have already proven that they are.

Tina Fiacco sprints to get control of the ball and to blast a shot at the goal.

The 1992-93 Cross Country team had an excellent season. The team had a record of 10-0 in the S.W.C.L. and they won the Southern Worcester County League Meet at Oxford High School. Other highlights of the season were when the team placed third at the Wachusett Invitational and then placed fifth at the Central Mass. District Meet.

The team was led by Junior captain Chuck Farrar, who has gone undefeated in regular season meets for two years. He also won the Wachusett Invitational. Seniors Keith O'Brien and Chris Lapworth were also excellent throughout the season.

This year's team had two runners qualify for the State Meet, which was held on the Gardiner Municipal Golf Course the weekend after the District Championship. Chuck Farrar finished sixteenth and Keith O'Brien finished sixty-eighth in a field of almost two hundred.

The entire team worked hard and is expected to improve its record next year. by Chuck Farrar

The 1992-93 Grafton High Football team finished the season with a record of 7 wins and 3 losses. Wins against Millbury, Oxford, Auburn, and Narragansett for the first time in our years started the Indians off to a great season. The team overcame a one point loss to rival Northbridge to go on a streak of six straight wins. The team was led by thirteen seniors and some juniors. The team would like to thank all the fans, cheerleaders, and coaches for their support. Good luck to next year's team!

Cheerleaders — We've got the spirit!

Each year Grafton High produces the most energetic and spirited group of cheerleaders in the S.W.C.L. league. This year both the football cheerleading squad and the basketball cheerleading squad boosted the spirits and pumped the adrenaline into the hands of the players and into the minds of the spectators. The girls, this season, were led by seniors Erica Butke, Courtney McKinstry and Liz Lucier for the football season and Erica Butke and Courtney McKinstry for the basketball season. All the girls work tremendously hard to get all Graftonites into the game. Keep up the good work, girls!

Grafton's Rebuilding Year

After an outstanding year last year the team was psyched to play. Unfortunately, due to a great loss of seniors, we were put back to square one. We knew early it would be a long season. But still almost all of us stuck with it. Clearly hard work was the key to our season. Even though we had one win we had no reason to hang our heads low. In fact, we have laid a foundation for a successful next year. Thanks to our coaches Bob Benoit and Bob Lucas. Finally, thank you to our dedicated fans who followed us through the season. Good luck next year to seniors Essek Petrie and Troy Winslow.

BOYS BASKETBALL

This year's Indian team proved to be one of the better teams of Grafton High history. The boys played in the Clark Tournament and advanced to the district finals, where they survived for a couple of games before they were finally eliminated. With the loss of six key seniors, next year's team will have to work much harder. Good luck next year!! Despite the age and inexperience of this year's Lady Indians, the season turned out better than expected. Juniors Lynn Molinari and Kelly Atchue both had outstanding seasons. Kelly was even one of the top scorers in the S.W.C.L. Other Juniors who contributed were Shannon Flynn, Danielle Dagilis, Christie Carlo, Liz Hogan, and Amy Cummins. Sophomores Sami Butke, Katie Kirejczyk and Julia Rahal also did an excellent job. The Lady Indians have high expectations for next season.

BOYS' TENNIS IN STATE SEMIS

Although the start of the tennis season was delayed due to snowfall, the 1993 Boys Tennis team worked very hard and ended up with tremendous results.

At the beginning of the season, the Indians pulled out two stunning victories over Bromfield and Shepherd Hill. The wins marked the first time in the history of Grafton High that these teams were defeated. Ilkka Uitti and Essek won their single matches in both matches. Stephen Yap brought the winning point home against Shepherd Hill and the tandem of Jason Kaufman and Bob Leger did the same thing against Bromfield.

The team beat Uxbridge and David Prouty 5-0 and clinched the Southern Worcester County League title without losing a match. They finished the season with a record of 12 wins and 2 losses. That was good enough to be seeded 2nd in the districts, and to get a bye in the first round. In the semifinals Grafton met Westboro, beating them 3-2. Winners for Grafton were Ilkka Uitti, Kevin Yap-Jess Gatley and Bob Leger-Jason Kaufman.

The district final was held indoors at Shrewsbury Racquet Club due to rain. The Indians beat Groton-Dunstable 4-1. Winners were Essek Petrie, Ilkka Uitti, Stephen Yap and a double team of Kevin Yap and Jess Gatley. The state semifinals were at Williams College the very next day. After a three-hour bus ride, the team played a very close match against Mt. Greylock, losing 3-2. Ilkka Uitti and Stephen Yap won their single matches for Grafton.

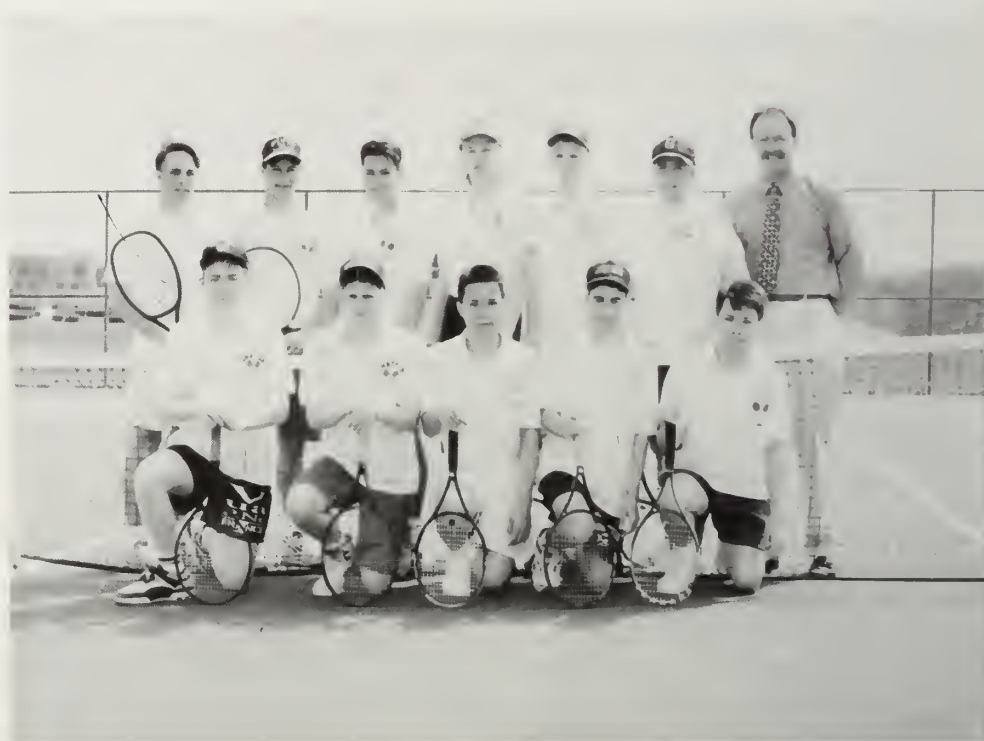

The season was the best in Grafton High tennis history. Thanks to coach Garreau (who has a life) and all the players' who worked very hard. Next year Grafton will have only one senior, Jess Gatley, and three juniors — Jason Kaufman, Cory Nazarian, and John Putnam, but they will do well. Good luck, guys, and congratulations for a great season!

The Girls' Tennis Team has had an incredible season. Finishing with a league record of 6-0, they took the S.W.C.L. title — a feat never before accomplished in Grafton High's tennis history. "This is the strongest team I've had in five years," boasted Coach Kaufman.

The powerful season lineup that brought victory included: Kristina Magill, Michele Young, and Carolyn Magill in singles; doubles team were Kate Noonan-Chrisanne Wyrzykowski and Tricia Cochran-Carole Klockek.

The team went to the District Playoffs on May 27, where they faced Notre Dame and Bromfield, two difficult teams. Thus their loss was no surprise, but no shame either. "The competition will be tough," noted Michele Young before the contest, and she was right.

Striving for a great season

As the '93 season comes to an end, one cannot overlook the contribution the seniors have given this team over the years. Kenny Haddad, Jeff Caputo, Tim Graves, Troy Winslow, and David Johansson have been great mental as well as physical assets to the Grafton High baseball team. David has given this team some good offense with his hitting and pitching. Troy had a hot bat this year, and a vacuum for a glove in the outfield. Kenny's pitching has helped this team out in the past two years as well as his unique and effective swing.

Tim was the team's utility player. Wherever Mr. Coleman put Tim in, he did a great job, and never let up. Jeff was a force at short. His strong throws to first put out many runners.

Next years team will miss these guys a lot, but we are young yet and we can only get better. With strong freshman pitching and ever improving infielding and outfielding this team is capable of going far in future years. We are going to miss you guys. Good Luck in the future!

TIMOTHY GRAVES — We are very proud of what you have accomplished and of the kind and sensitive person you have become. We wish you happiness and success in the future. Always remember you have our love and support. Mom, Dad, Sean, and Emily.

KENNY HADDAD — As the years have passed, you've become a bright, caring, and responsible person. We're very proud of you and your accomplishments. You're ready to face the future now. We're confident that you have what it takes to make your future a happy and successful one. Love, Mom, Dad, and Chris.

JEN HECK — "There are only two lasting things we can give our children: one is roots; the other is wings." To Jenny — we love you. We're proud of you. You're unique. Soon it will be your time to fly. Love, Mom, Dad, Danielle, Buffy, and Fluffy.

CARA HUTCHISON — Where did the time go? It seems like only yesterday that you were a little girl and now you have matured into a beautiful young woman preparing for the next step in your life. We are very proud of the thoughtful person you've become and look forward to sharing with you everything the future holds. We love you! Mom, Dad, and Leah.

STEPHANIE D. JAMIOL — Your spirit of determination kept you alive at birth and is just as strong today! We hope and pray that all your dreams will come true. Show them what you've got, Baby! Love, Mom and Dad.

STEPHANIE JENSEN — Stephanie, "Susie," "Stepinski," beautiful inside and out from day one. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. Congratulations — reap your harvest. WE love you. Mom, Dad, Geoff. OOOOOOXXXXXX

DAVID JOHANSSON — We are so very, very proud of you. There are so many things we wish for you, but if we had to choose one, it would be that you'd have wisdom in all the decisions that you will face in the future. We love you and you will always occupy a very prominent place in our hearts. Mom, Dad, Dan, and Jon.

CHRISTINE JOLIE — Congratulations! Dad and I are very proud of you and your accomplishments, especially the wonderful person you've become. Your dedication and perseverance are qualities that will serve you forever. You've brought us such joy, happiness, and love. Thank God you are ours. Love always, Mom and Dad.

PAMELA JONES — Take pride in what you've accomplished and celebrate. You deserve it! Love always, Mom, Dad, Chris, and Doug.

KELLY KUROPATKIN — Congratulations, Kelly! You made it and made us very proud along the way. Reach for the stars. We love you. Mom and Dad.

ROBERT LEGER — Oh, the place you'll go! You've searched; you've worked; you've dreamt. Whatever path you choose, success is within you. We love you and are proud of you. Mom and Dad.

MARK LEOLEIS — Congratulations, Mark! We're very proud of you. As you leave one stage of your life behind and begin another, always know that our love and support go with you in all that you do. Reach for your dreams, love from your heart, smile from your soul. We love you very much — Mom, Dad and Kim.

LEO L'ESPERANCE — Congratulations! Leo, you made it. We hope that everything in the future will come easier. We will always love and support you in everything you do. Love, Mom and Dad and family.

ROGER LIMOGES — Congratulations, Rog! We hope your dreams for the future come true. Love, Mom, Jack, Dad, Marie and Nikki.

SCOTT LOPRIORE — We are proud of you. Enjoy your pursuit of your star. Love, Mom and Dad.

ELIZABETH LUCIER — Congratulations, Liz! Like your hot air balloon ride, may your future include adventure, realization of dreams and fulfillment. We have confidence, love, and support that you will. Love, Mom, Dad, Jacqui, Bob, Tom, and Patrick.

CAROLYN E. MAGILL — Wow! You did it your way! With that head and that heart; stay true to yourself. You have surpassed so many of our hopes and dreams. Continue to include your family and friends in that adventure of a life you lead. Love always, Mom, Dad, Kevin, Jimmy, and Fribling.

CRYSTAL MALONEY — Time has slipped by, much too fast. We hold dear memories of childhood past. Our prettiest blue-eyed girl, so grown. Ready to go, in a world unknown. We wish you luck in all you do. Life has so much to offer you. Find your way, time time to decide. We cherish you dearly, with pride. We love you, Nufy. Keep smiling! Mom, Dad, Mike, Lena, Anna, Jay, and Tee.

COURTNEY MCKINSTRY — Courtney, it's our chance to thank you. Simple but true. We care. You have made us very happy, but most of all proud. You need not change in the future, just adjust as you go forward. There are no limits for you, darling, because you have so much to give. Congratulations and love, Mom, Dad, and Rob.

KEVIN MCMAHON — You make us so proud. With your focus and determination you can achieve anything you set out to do. Just remember we are always here for you. Lots of Love, Mom and Dad.

NICOLE MEOMARTINO — Nicole, you are a source of pride and joy for us. Though we admire your many accomplishments, we are even more proud of the beautiful, loving, responsible, and caring young lady that you are. The future is yours. Go for it! Know that our love will be with you always. Mom, Dad, and Angela.

MICHELLE MESALE — Congratulations, Michelle! We hope you are successful in everything you do in life, but most of all, we wish you happiness. Love you, Mom, Dad, Erin, and Kristen.

CINDY MURTARI — We were so proud of our little girl during your first years of dance school. Now you're a young adult ready to achieve your goals in life. You made it through high school and you'll make it through the rest of your life with success! Congratulations. We are very proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Gina.

KEITH WILLIAM O'BRIEN — This year I watched you grow into a loving, caring, courageous and proud man. You learned well from Dad. You made us proud. Thanks for being there for me. Love always, Mom, Amy, and Mark.

ERIN O'CONNOR — The heart has its reasons that reason does not know. Good luck. God bless. Be happy. I love you, Erin. Love, Mom.

RYAN O'MALLEY — For you a challenge isn't new. We know you have the heart. Just keep believing in yourself. Your life's about to start. Everything you need to know is right there in your head. You know what is important. The rest has all been said. All our love and support, Mom and Dad.

JAMIE-LYN ORASY — Congratulations! It seems like only yesterday we were sending you off to nursery school, and now you're off to college. We know how hard you had to work for this and we're proud of you. You know we're always here for you with all our love and support. Best wishes for the future. Love, Mom and Dad.

JOANNE PELLAND — From the time you first toddled across the room, you've always been your own person, listened to your heart, and run headstrong into the wind. We couldn't be happier with all your hard-earned accomplishments. You've become a beautiful person. You mean more to us than you know. Love, Mom and Dad.

CHRIS PENNEY — Congratulations! We are very proud of you. No matter what you decide to do in the future, you'll always have our unconditional support and love. Mom and Dad.

JUSTIN and KELLY PHILLIPS — Justin and Kelly were sent from above. An uncle and his niece that we could guide with our love. A parent's wish is that a child should succeed, get that diploma, and of course, that degree. These two fine people have grown up to be shining examples of our large family.

KERRI POOLER — Between then and now, you have been through many changes. How you have matured and become the loving person you are today makes us proud. Congratulations! May the future hold something wonderful for you. We love you — Mom and Dad.

ANGELA RYSEARSON — "... When you finally fly away, I'll be hoping that I served you well. For all the wisdom of a lifetime, no one can ever tell. But whatever road you choose, I'm right behind you, win or lose..." And in our hearts you will remain forever young. Love, Mom and Dad.

ERIKA D. SIMPSON — Just look at you! We are all so proud of you! You are off to a great start with this important milestone passed. We wish you many successes, along with the knowledge that we are there for you always to help you over the "bumps." Much love, Mom, Dad, and Jared.

JANE SMITH — Congratulations, Jane! You have become such a wonderful young lady. We are so proud. Remember we are always here for you. Love and God bless, Mom and Dad.

JOSEPH WILLISTON — Way to go, Stick! Glad to see you made it through 3 states and 4 high schools. We are proud of you. Love, Dad, Mom, Pam, Kelly, and "louie."

TROY WINSLOW — Congratulations, Troy. You're an incredible son. Remember always how proud we are of you and how much we love you. The future is ours. Your determination and many talents will help you to succeed in whatever you do. Love, Mom, Dad, and Tim.

KEVIN YAP — Congratulations, Kevin! You have come a long way and you made us feel very proud through all your achievements. You gave us years of happiness and we will always be here for you. With all our love, Mom and Dad.

STEPHEN YAP — We couldn't be more proud of your accomplishments and commitments through all the years. We hope you are happy and successful in everything you do in life. You give us a lot of joy. With all our love, Mom and Dad.

OUR YOUNGER YEARS: Remember when . . .

CAN YOU TELL WHO'S WHO?

I, Melissa Baril, leave a visit to my chiropractor to everyone for one step in the direction to good health.

I, Erin Bjorndal, leave Mr. Larivee clicky pens and boomerangs to play with because I know he'll be lost without them!

I, Heather Bolack, leave more gym students like me to Mr. Bergenholtz because I know it will drive him crazy!

I, Dawn Booth, leave all the new freshmen to Mr. Larivee and Mr. Dodd because they get worse every year. Have fun. I'll miss you guys!

I, Alyson Candela, leave no clothes to Erin Brehme because I have them all.

I, Jason Castillo, leave Chris Lapointe to Mr. Bergenholtz to try to fill my big size 16 shoes.

I, Amy Collins, leave Millbury guys (esp. A.J. & Al) and Millbury memories to Stephanie Jensen because I am sick and tired of being "queered out" by their actions.

I, Danielle Dumas, leave the perfect environment to Mrs. Rector because she cares and works hard to take care of and clean up the environment — Recycle.

I, Scott Alan Godbout, leave cheese and sausage to Mr. Tite because a promise from many months ago has to be fulfilled sometime as a thanks for the good grades.

I, Tim Graves, leave my spot on the basketball bench to anyone who wants it — keep it warm with pride.

I, Ken Haddad, leave my speed and jumping ability to all the sports teams because I won't need them anymore.

I, Noura Hage, leave Jessica to Mr. Schoos and I leave Jeff E. my locker and my calculator if he can find it.

I, Nippa Holmes, leave the spirit of the Dogs to next year's football team because the Dogs rule!

I, Stephanie Jamiol, leave my sincerest wishes of good fortune to everyone at GHS because the future is yours — bask in its glory.

I, Stephanie Jensen, leave my grades to Geoff Jensen and Jason Magnant because you sure need all the help you can get.

I, Kelly Kuropatkin, leave untroubled relationships to period 2 study table because they always seem to be having problems.

I, Roger Limoges, leave my political advice to Ms. Labonte, Jeannie Peterson, Chris LaPlante, Jay Ermanelly and Beth Hermans who could certainly use it.

I, Elizabeth Lucier, leave plane tickets to Holly Giles because I know that she will be taking plenty of flights with Tom Ford.

I, Tina Mazzairelli, leave the memory of Jethro to all my friends because he ruled.

I, Nicole Meomartino, leave my French dictionary to Erin, Kellie, Wirinya and Danielle for their next trip to Paris so that they can order for themselves in a cafe.

I, Michelle Ng, leave sugarless coffee and a banner to Keith Mitchell and Andrea Hirst for all meets and award ceremonies the debate team attends in memory of our first win and GHS spirit.

I, Erin O'Connor, leave all our memories to everyone (you know who) because you are all the best.

I, Jo Pelland, leave "Jo's Dictionary and Interpretations on Tite" to all of us who never understood my miscellaneous ramblings.

I, Essek Petrie, leave the Louisville Slugger to Sam because the need to fly is a good thing.

I, Angela Ryneanson, leave my black belt to Jamie-Lyn Orasy because she'll never find it.

I, Erika D. Simpson, leave my hope, my good luck, and my great appreciation to Mrs. Bates, Mr. Tite and Mr. Kos for helping me and assisting me this year in conjunction with my studies at Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

I, Jennifer Vincent, leave my grades to my sister Jessica Vincent so she won't have to take her finals.
